The Account of the Airman will be kept by the Base Accounts Office* to which Part II of this Book, when full, and all communications relating to his Account should be forwarded.

N.B.—In the event of the Airman's decease the whole Book (Parts I and II) is to be sent to the Base Personnel Staff Officer (Base Accounts Office) or the Air Officer in Charge of Records (Central Pay Office); Part II will be extracted by him and sent to the Central Pay Office.*

Instructions to Airman

1. This Book is to be produced on the demand of a superior officer, or when the holder requires an advance of cash.

2. When an advance of cash is made, you will sign the acquittance roll of the paying officer on the line containing the amount you receive. The paying officer will sign the corresponding entry in this book on the page for Cash payments.

3. You will make no entries in this book, except to sign your name on pages 5, 7 and 9

4. Should you lose this book you will at once report the loss to your Commanding Officer. A new book will be obtained from the Base Accountant Officer or Central Pay Office, but it must be understood that no pay can be issued in respect of the period before the date on which you report the loss, until the balance has been ascertained from the Base Accounts Office or Central Pay Office. If, after a new book has been issued to you the former book is found, it should immediately be surrendered to your Commanding Officer.
